BIOGRAPHY

FROM SEOUL TO THE WORLD'S STAGES

Originally introduced to music through guitar at the age of 12, electronic artist, producer, DJ, and live guitarist Raiden built his foundation between live instrumentation and electronic production. He developed a distinct sound that merges melodic tension and powerful stage energy.

Since emerging onto the global electronic scene, Raiden has performed at internationally renowned festivals including Ultra Music Festival Miami, Ultra Europe, and Tomorrowland Belgium, while also appearing at iconic club venues such as Hi Ibiza, Fabrik Madrid, and Melkweg Amsterdam. In 2018, he represented Korea during the closing ceremony of the PyeongChang Winter Olympics. His debut single “Heart of Steel,” released through Nicky Romero’s Protocol Recordings, received a nomination in the Dance & Electronic category at the Korean Music Awards, marking his arrival as one of Korea’s internationally recognized electronic artists. Further cementing his global reputation, he became the first Korean DJ to perform at British Summer Time Hyde Park.

Raiden has built a reputation for bridging international electronic music with forward-thinking production. He has worked alongside global icons like Boys Noize, Steve Angello, Martin Garrix, Fedde Le Grand, Matisse & Sadko and DubVision. Alongside his global work, he has collaborated with leading artists associated with SM Entertainment, bridging contemporary electronic production with Korean pop songwriting.

Now entering a new creative chapter in tech house, his direction moves beyond traditional dance structures into immersive, club-driven energy with a visually driven world. With upcoming releases on Insomniac and Tomorrowland Music, Raiden balances industrial textures and refined minimalism to create a distinct identity within contemporary electronic music.
